

Family Music and Arts Festival at Upper Canada Village
Family Activity Centre, September 1, 2 and 3, 2007
12:00 Noon – 4:30 p.m.

Times	Saturday September 1, 2007	Sunday September 2	Monday September 3
12:00 noon	Upper Canada Village Staff will conduct an action filled sing-a-long for younger children	Upper Canada Village Staff will conduct an action filled sing-a-long for younger children	Upper Canada Village Staff will conduct an action filled sing-a-long for younger children
12:20 p.m.	Welcome to the Festival –Trudy Hart	Welcome to the Festival –Trudy Hart	Welcome to the Festival –Trudy Hart
12:30 p.m.	Mike Ford – Juno nominated singer songwriter whose album Canada Needs You (volume one) features characters and events in Canadian History	James Gordon – internationally renowned singer songwriter of songs about Canada’s identity & heritage	Celtic Rathscallions featuring Wendy Moore lively Celtic music and step dancing with traditional instruments and lots of audience participation
1:30 p.m.	Ruth Stewart-Verger respected storyteller relates the stories of real people their struggles & triumphs in an unforgettable performance	David Smith Marionettes perform Little Red Riding Hood – A Melodrama. Cheer the hero; boo the villain	Storyteller Kathleen Kompass – What a Tale I Could Tell – Listen to and take part in folk tales about the adventures, mischief & joys of the everyday people living in a small village along the St. Lawrence over 100 years ago
2:30 p.m.	Mike Ford – Juno nominated singer songwriter whose album Canada Needs You (volume one) features characters and events in Canadian History	James Gordon – internationally renowned singer songwriter of songs about Canada’s identity & heritage	Celtic Rathscallions featuring Wendy Moore lively Celtic music and step dancing with traditional instruments and lots of audience participation
3:30 p.m.	Ruth Stewart-Verger respected storyteller relates the stories of real people their struggles & triumphs in an unforgettable performance	David Smith Marionettes perform Little Red Riding Hood – A Melodrama. Cheer the hero; boo the villain	Storyteller Kathleen Kompass – What a Tale I Could Tell – Listen to and take part in folk tales about the adventures, mischief & joys of the everyday people living in a small village along the St. Lawrence over 100 years ago
4:30 p.m.	Festival ends for the day

Visit Upper Canada Village again on Sept. 8 for Fall Garden Day, Sept. 15 and 16 for the Fall Fair and on Sept. 22 and 23 for the Quilt Show.